
Guillaume WILEMME - Post-doc researcher

(January 2018)

Aix-Marseille University
AMSE, Château Lafarge
Route des Milles
13290 Les Milles, France

Date of birth: July 4th 1989
French citizenship
Phone: +33 (0)6 33 23 07 41

Email: research@gwilemme.com

Website: <http://gwilemme.com>

Research interests

Labor Economics, Economic Theory, Structural Econometrics

Position

2017-now: Post-doc researcher, Aix-Marseille University
2015-2016: Ph.D. completion fellow, Aix-Marseille School of Economics (AMSE)
2014-2015: Visiting student researcher, University of California, Berkeley

Education

2016: Ph.D. Sciences Po Paris, Economics
Thesis on Searching on the Labor Market: Theoretical Implications and Empirical Evidence
2012: M.Sc. Sciences Po, Economics
2012: M.Sc. ENSAE ParisTech, Economics
2010: B.Sc. ENSAE ParisTech, Statistics/Economics

On-going research

- “Optimal Taxation for Inefficient Job Mismatch”, R&R, Review of Economic Dynamics
- “Regional Equilibrium Persistence and Agglomeration Effects”, with Pierre Deschamps (Sciences Po Paris), work in progress

Presentations: Workshop on Labor Mobility, the Housing Market and Labor Market Outcomes, Louvain-la-Neuve 2014, CEAFE 2016, AMSE 2016, Spatial Dimensions of the Labour Market Workshop Mannheim 2017, AFSE 2017

- “Estimating On-the-job Search as an Intensive Margin”, work in progress

Presentations: Search and Matching Workshop AMSE 2015, Sciences Po Paris 2015, IAAE Thessaloniki 2015, AMSE 2015, Search and Matching Workshop Amsterdam 2016, LAGV 2016, EEA 2016

- “Geographic and Labour Mobility over the Life-cycle”, with Christian Schluter (Aix-Marseille Univ.), new, work in progress
- “Social Welfare for Independent Workers”, new, work in progress

Teaching

- Fall 2017: Lecturer, Introduction to Structural Econometrics (Ph.D. students), AMSE
- Spring 2013: Teaching Assistant, Econometrics (graduate), ENSAE ParisTech
- Fall 2012-2013: Teaching Assistant, Microeconomics (undergraduate), Université Paris V
- Fall 2012: Lecturer, Mathematical Methods for economists (undergraduate), ENS Cachan

Experience

- Reviewer for Labour Economics (x2), Journal of Public Economic Theory, Revue Economique
- 2015: Research Assistant, web scraping, for Johannes Boehm
- 2014: Research Assistant, data analysis, for Stéphane Auray and Nicolas Lepage-Saucier: “La courbe du chômage ne s’est pas inversée”, LIEPP Policy Brief, Jan. 2014.
- 2011: Summer internship in econometrics, French Ministry of Education
- 2010: Summer internship in statistics, INSEE

Awards

- 2017: Prix de la Chancellerie des Universités de Paris, Ph.D. award
- 2015: One-year Ph.D. grant, Aix-Marseille School of Economics
- 2013-2015: 3 times invited to the Rencontres Economiques d’Aix-en-Provence (a French think-tank on economic issues) after a writing contest
- 2014: Mobility grant to visit UC Berkeley, Sciences Po
- 2012: Three-year research grant, Sciences Po

Languages and computing

- Languages: French (native), English (fluent), Spanish (basic)
- Softwares: promoter of Julia (and Jupyter), R otherwise, Python occasionally, SAS and Stata as a last resort

Miscellaneous

In process of imitating Jimi Hendrix with a guitar. I am a consumer taster for the French national agricultural contest (“Concours Général Agricole”) for food and alcohol.